Dear Celine,

We hope this letter finds you well. We wanted to take a moment to congratulate you on your stunning performance at the opening ceremony of the Olympics. Your and presence truly illuminated the event, captivating audiences around the world. It was a beautiful celebration of not only sports but also of unity and hope. You really did bring the house down Celine! It's an unforgettable performance that will be cherished for years to come. Moreover, we want to express our heartfelt wishes for your health during this challenging time. Your strength and resilience are truly inspiring, and we believe that you will overcome this hurdle with the same determination you have shown throughout your career. Indeed we recently watched your documentary and it profoundly moved us; your candidness about your journey and the challenges you've faced resonated deeply, reminding us of the power of resilience.

I encourage you to prioritize your well-being, and know that your fans are supporting you every step of the way. Wishing you all the best in your recovery and future endeavors.

Warm regards

Candice, Jean, Alexy, Hannah
